Chapter 1 by Katie Switzer

I wonder if you ever loved me. I wondered that too, until I saw you laugh, then I knew, I knew I loved you, I would've done anything to have kept you.

I wish I told you this, before the crash, I should've kissed you and never other with that slut, I loved you, and now you're gone, and I'm talking to your casket and your family thinks I'm insane, I have never seen your father this shocked and said, he keeps mutter "it should be me" it scares me. Your brother hasn't talked at all since it happened, Hell I haven't either, until now. I close my eyes, and wish for your eyes to open when mine do, I fall backwards, your eyes are looking at me, just how they used to.
